

CLASS NOTES

1940s

Harriet L. (Houghtaling) Brougham (CH '49) worked for Kodak from 1974-1989. She received a BS in Interdisciplinary Studies from Empire State College in 1991 and worked as a counselor until 1994. Since 2003 she has been enjoying the beautiful weather, flora and fauna in Sanford, Florida where she lives near her daughter, two grandsons, a great grandson and great granddaughter.

1950s

Jacqueline Brady Deinhardt (MO '51) is retired from Chenango Valley Central Schools. Her son has just returned from his 3rd Middle East deployment, with 18 years of Army service. She has three daughters, all of whom graduated from BCC. Jacqueline resides in Binghamton.

Joseph Edgar Moss II (TO '56) retired from IBM as a Systems Analyst in 1986 and currently lives in Coker Creek, Tennessee.

Charles J. Garczynski (MT '57) is retired and living in Rochester, NY.

Brent J. Ingraham (MT '59) retired to Calabash, North Carolina six years ago and is loving every minute of it!

1960s

Greg L. Mangan (BT '61) lives in Fayetteville, New York with his wife Mariana, they have five children and eight grandchildren. Greg earned a BS in Business Administration from Columbia College and worked for UPS for 32 years until his retirement in 1995. After "retirement" he taught high school, drove school bus, and did research on Adult Cognitive Learning, funded by the National Institutes for Aging and Health, at Syracuse University.

Nelson C. Richards (PE '61) is currently working as a Development Assistant for Alice Lloyd College in Pippa Passes, Kentucky. He is a graduate of Catholic University of America, retired from DuPont, and retired from the USNR as rank of Commander. He and his wife Marion live in Midlothian, Virginia and have 2 children and 5 grandchildren.

Philip P. Speyer (BT '61) was a Stock Broker and Branch Manager of various major security firms until his retirement in 1989. He resides in Scottsdale, Arizona.

C. David Ostrander (PE '65) received a BS in Physics from SUNY Cortland and an MS in Science Education from SUNY Geneseo. He retired in 2004 after teaching Science in the Owego Apalachin School District for 36 years. His wife of 38 years, Beth, is also retired.

Stephen J. Heyda (LA '66) is the Director of Contracts and Accounting for Xtria, LLC a Virginia Company working with the Department of Health and Human Services. He received his BA and MS in Education from SUNY Fredonia and worked as a teacher in the Vestal Schools before changing to Contract Management. He and his wife Suzanne (DeBlase) live in Warrenton, VA. Their son Brandon is a 2006 graduate of the University of Connecticut and daughter Arielle attends Lord Fairfax Community College.

James C. Caverly (BT '67) retired in Spring 2007 from BCC's Business Programs Department where he was an Associate Professor.

Thomas M. Krissel (MT '67) retired in 2006 as a Project manager with Xerox in Rochester, NY. He and his wife Cheryl Malone have been married 35 years and reside in Rochester with their son Joseph.

Nancy (Kratky) Stefanski (BT '67) is the Building Secretary for Vestal Hills Elementary School. She has one daughter, Holly, who is engaged to be married in August of this year.

1970s

Patricia L. Newland (RN '70) retired from BCC's Health Sciences Division where she had served as a Professor of Nursing.

G. Frederic Hall (CT '71) is the Town of Dix Administrator in Schuyler County, NY after having retired from 30 years as a chemical engineering professional. He has a BS in Chemical Engineering from University of Oklahoma. He resides in Watkins Glen.

Deborah Halpin-Brophy (LA '72) is serving her fourth term as Borough Councilwoman in Mt. Holly Springs, Pennsylvania.

John M. Zych (BT '72) is a Retail Territory Manager for the Binghamton Press & Sun Bulletin.

Heidi Sweet-Matalka (DH '73, CSDP '85) resides in Charlotte, North Carolina where she works as an Orthodontic Assistant. She is the mother of a 14 year old daughter.

Sharon M. Exley (LA '74) was recently elected to be the Chairperson of the Broome County Republican Committee. She also is also a Town of Dickinson Council member.

Donna M. Rehak (BT '74) was the recipient of the BCC Alumni Volunteer of the Year Award at Reunion 2007 President's Dinner. In addition, she was a member of the Spring 2007 BCC Leadership Academy graduating class. Donna is the Staff Associate to the Dean of Liberal Arts and Human Services at BCC.

Ann M. Schwenker (SC '74) lives in Lexington, South Carolina and is the Fiscal Manager for Finlay House, a HUD subsidized housing complex.

Joe J. Toman (LA '74) is proud to announce that his daughter Joanna graduated from BCC in 2007 with a Nursing degree.

Margaret E. Tyarks (LA '74) Major US Air Force (Ret) turned 86 in February 2007. She resides in Binghamton.

David L. Gosselin (CH '75 and RN '92) works for Vestal Nursing Center in Vestal, New York. His son Chris recently received his degree in Engineering Science from BCC.

Mark A. Loomis (PE '75) is a Television Director for WJAR-TV in Providence, Rhode Island.

Claire Ligeikis-Clayton (RN '76) retired in the Spring of 2007 as a Professor of Nursing in the BCC Health Sciences Division.

Carol (Lewis) Kuchera (LA '76) has lived in the Buffalo area for nearly 30 years where after graduating from Brockport (BS '78) and Buffalo State (MS '79) she went to work for Erie 1 BOCES as a speech pathologist, working with special needs children for the past 28 years.

Trudy Rossiter Ritter (DH '76) lives in Johnson City, NY with her husband Michael who is a Sales Rep for Houghton International. She has three sons, David who works for Time Warner, Steve attending Clarkson University and Scott a student at Johnson City High School.

Craig S. Wrigley (ET '76) operates his own business in custom electronics installation and integration. Prior to this he spent 30 years in sales and sales leadership and as a Senior Consultant at Electronic Data Systems (EDS). Craig states that his BCC education served him well and thanks the professors who helped pave his future.

Joseph Michael Scanlan, PhD (ET '77) is currently working at Lockheed Martin in Virginia. He received his BT degree in Electrical Engineering at SUNY Binghamton in 1979, and MSEE from Syracuse University in 1982 and his PhD in EE from BYU in 1991. Joe has three boys, two in college, and has been married to his wife Lynn for 22 years.

David J. Yacaginsky (CH '77), now living in Australia, sends his best to all his fellow '77 "mates" on their 30th reunion.

Janice Faughnan Canniff (SC '78) lives in Woodstock, CT and is employed by the University of Connecticut.

Jennifer Houghtalen (RN '78), Assistant Professor of Nursing at BCC, received the New York State Nursing Association District Number 5 Nursing Education Award 2007.

This award is for a nurse educator who has made significant contributions to professional education.

Regina Losinger (BA '78) was a member of the Spring 2007 BCC Leadership Academy graduating class. She is the Budget Officer for BCC.

Jack R. Moses (BA '78) is a Certified Financial Planner and has joined Wachovia Securities in Vestal, NY as Vice President of Investments.

1980s

Al M. Grega (ET '81) has been with IBM for 28 years and is currently a Worldwide Marketing Manager to IBM Sales Teams. He is the product marketer for the company's WebSphere Product Line. He resides in Holtsville, NY.

Alan P. Kriesel (BA '83) received his BS degree in Industrial Technology at SUNY Binghamton in 1984. He is currently working as an Engineering Specialist at Bell Helicopter in Fort Worth, TX. He is interesting in hearing from other BCC alums in the Dallas/Fort Worth area. He can be reached at latcobtx@yahoo.com.

Francis A. Berry (BA '85) is a Principal Account Clerk for Tioga County Department of Social Services. She has one grandchild and resides in Apalachin, New York.

Valerie J. Mahar (LA '85) is the Vice President of Student and Community Affairs for New Hampshire Community College in Claremont.

Gary J. O'Neil (ES '85) lives in Merritt Island, Florida and is an Aerospace Engineer for NASA at John F. Kennedy Space Center. He is a Thermodynamics Engineer for spacecraft and expendable launch vehicles. He received his BS in Aeronautical Engineering at Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University.

William G. Paff (ES '86) is an Engineer for MPR Associates. He resides in Spring, Texas.

Kristin J. Ericksen (LA '87) was a member of the Spring 2007 BCC Leadership Academy graduating class. She is an Associate Professor in BCC's Psychology and Human Resources Department.

Mary Kay Rounds (BUMM '87) retired from CAE Link in 1994 after 28 years with the company, then retired from Panasonic in Georgia in 2001. She has a daughter (Sandra Stoeckel RN '89) who graduated from BCC and a granddaughter who currently attends Broome. She resides in Binghamton.

Luiz C. Santos (ET '87) is a Senior Manager and Latin America PS Manager for Network Appliance, Inc. in Sunnyvale, California.

Tracy Lynn (Savka) George (BUBA '89) is a Senior Accountant for the Broome County Health Department. She received her Bachelors degree in Business Administration from Mansfield University. Tracy lives in Windsor, NY with her husband Jeremy and son Cameron.

Joanne Thomas (LAMH '89) is a Licensed Clinical Social Worker with a private psychotherapy practice in Binghamton.

1990s

Mario Antenucci (BUBC '90) received his BS from SUNY Binghamton and has been self employed since 1994. He resides in Endicott, NY.

Bruce T. Baker (BUMM '92) is a Social Worker with the Hospice of Lake and Sumter in Tavares, Florida. He received his BS in Applied Social Sciences from Binghamton University in 1994 and his MSW in 1996 from SUNY Albany and is currently interning to be a Licensed Clinical Social Worker. He has two sons Michael, 24 and Andrew, 31.

Scot A. Beekman (BUBA '92) was a member of the Spring 2007 BCC Leadership Academy graduating class. He is a Program Analyst in BCC's Computer Resources Department.

Deborah (Haas) Eckhardt (CSAS '93) and Michael A. Eckhardt (ES '93) were married in September 2006. She is an Occupational Therapist at the Institute for Child Development at Binghamton University and he is a Senior Project Engineer for Bearsch, Compeau, Knudson Architects and Engineers in Binghamton.

Luigi Crespo (AS '94) is the Director of Special Events and Protocol for the U.S. Agency for International Development (USAID). He and his wife Annesses Gross (AS '95) live in Frederick, Maryland with their three children.

Annesses Gross (AS '95) resides in Frederick, Maryland with her husband Luigi Crespo (LACM '93), they have three children Zoraida, Emilio and Gabriela.

Michele S. Varga (LAAA '95) was a member of the Spring 2007 BCC Leadership Academy graduating class. She is a Staff Assistant/Advisor in BCC's Admissions Office.

Catherine E. Schuldt (MA '96) was a member of the Spring 2007 BCC Leadership Academy graduating class. She is an Instructor in BCC's Medical Assistant Program.

Brian D. Acly (CJ '98) was in the Military Police and attended the Texas Police Academy. He has come back home to the Binghamton area and is currently employed by Maines.

John J. Dunda (BUFS '99) is a Field Sales Account Executive for the Binghamton Press & Sun Bulletin.

2000s

Peter J. Friedman (CSCT '02) is Vice President and Chief Technical Officer for Mooneyhan Entertainment Group, managing day-to-day operations of the IT infrastructure and support staff, researching and introducing new technologies that improve the company's daily operational requirements. He resides in Jacksonville, Florida.

Kristofor J. Lanko (LACM '02) is a master Control Operator for WBNG TV in Binghamton. He is currently working on his BS degree at SUNY Oneonta. He lives in Endicott, NY.

Steven E. McElwain, Jr. (ES '02) is a Mechanical Engineer for Lockheed Martin Systems Integration in Owego, New York. He received his BS and MS in Mechanical Engineering from Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute (RPI) in '04 and '06 respectively.

Reina Elizabeth Rodriguez (ISAT '02) is a Training Manager for Hilton Princess. She lives in El Salvador.

Lee E. Stephens (ES '02) is a Senior Systems Engineer for Danaher Motion in Radford, Virginia. Previously he worked for 22 years at Universal Instruments. Lee has written several articles for trade magazines and has been able to implement motion control trainings and projects world-wide.

Celeste L. Abbadessa (LAGS '03) is the Coordinator of the Annual Fund and Business Gifts at Schenectady County Community College. Prior to that she was the Development Coordinator for the Interfaith Partnership for the Homeless in Albany. She is currently a graduate student at the Nelson A. Rockefeller School of Public Administration, she holds a bachelor's degree in political science from the University of Albany.

Cheryl A. Mancini (BIM '03) operates her own website design business – CAM Web Design. Her daughter is currently attending BCC.

Timothy W. Drumm (CT '04) is a Civil Designer for RMF Engineering. He resides in Morrisville, NC.

Cheryl L. Sullivan (BUBA '04) was a member of the Spring 2007 BCC Leadership Academy graduating class. She is the Office Manager to the Dean of Liberal Arts and Human Services at BCC.

Havrist Zebari (XR '04) works as a Radiation Therapist, he resides in Binghamton.

