DECLARATION OF FINANCIAL SUPPORT FORM

(For F-1 Student Visa Applicants)

If you plan to attend Broome Community College on an F-1 Student Visa, you must secure a Certificate of Eligibility for Non-immigrant (F-1) Student Status-SEVIS Form I-20 issued by our College. The SEVIS I-20 is a document required by Department of Homeland Security to prove your immigration status. It is needed to apply for an F-1 Student Visa. Before Broome Community College can issue you an I-20, you must be admitted to a program of study and demonstrate your ability to meet all educational and living expenses for the entire period of intended study at the College. You are required to document funds available to cover at least the first year of expenses at the College and indicate how you will cover expenses for subsequent years of study. This documentation will be required at your visa interview at the US Embassy in your country, at the Port of Entry (Canadian students), or when applying for change of status.

Instructions: Complete the all sections on the reverse side of this form. Obtain all necessary signatures and return the form with the appropriate financial documentation to the International Student Admissions Office.*

Source of Funds or Financial Support Available to You:	Documentation and verification you must submit to the International Student Admissions Office:
Personal Savings, Family or Other Financial Sponsor	Signatures of both applicant and sponsor on the reverse side of this form OR Letter from sponsor stating name of applicant, relationship to applicant, conditions of sponsorship AND a separate original bank statement of account or letter from bank on bank letterhead acknowledging that the minimum required amount is available from account. Sponsorship may be from more than one source but a letter from each sponsor is required. In the case of local housing sponsorship, a letter stating in details the conditions of sponsorship, address, ability to offer housing, and duration of sponsorship are required in the sponsor's letter.
Scholarship	Official scholarship letter addressed to Broome Community College from the institution awarding the scholarship. The award letter should contain the name of the applicant, amount of funds available for each year of study, the duration of the award (including beginning and end dates) and the major field of study for which the scholarship is awarded.
Government or Employer Sponsor	Official letter addressed to Broome Community College indicating the amount of support and containing the same information as for "scholarship" described above.
Loan	Official letter from credit institution showing loan approval and amount of loan.

If your country restricts the exchange of U.S. currency, please indicate the maximum amount permitted for a student: and any other exchange concerns: _____.

If you plan to bring family dependents with you, state the name(s) of each dependent on a separate sheet of paper and indicate the dependent's relationship to you, country of birth and citizenship. Additional financial support must be demonstrated for dependents.

Broome Community College reserves the right to require additional financial documentation and/or pre-payment from applicants whose countries impose currency exchange restrictions or other obstacles to the transfer of currency.

Broome Community College does not discriminate on the basis of race, sex, color, religion, age, national origin, disability, marital status, sexual orientation, or status as a disabled veteran or veteran of the Vietnam era in the recruitment or education of students; the recruitment and employment of faculty and staff; or the operation of any of its programs or activities. Where relevant, state and federal laws apply.
