

1. Mbira is a type of music and instrument used in the religious ceremonies of the Shona People, including those who live in this, the largest city in Zimbabwe?
  - A. Harare
  - B. Pretoria
  - C. Nairobi
  - D. Johannesburg
2. This island, the largest of the Ryukyu Islands, was under U.S. control from late in World War II until 1972.
  - A. Taiwan
  - B. Nagasaki
  - C. Okinawa
  - D. Tokyo
3. Merengue is a type of lively music and dance celebrated in a festival each year in this, the largest city in the Dominican Republic.
  - A. Port-au-Prince
  - B. Santiago
  - C. San Juan
  - D. Santo Domingo
4. This port city on the Red Sea receives Muslim pilgrims bound for Mecca.
  - A. Jeddah
  - B. Abu Dhabi
  - C. Medina
  - D. Cairo
5. Belgium's largest ethnic group, the Flemings, speak a dialect of what language?
  - A. French
  - B. Dutch
  - C. English
  - D. German
6. One of South America's largest coalmines is just east of the Rio Magdalena, along a peninsula on the Caribbean coast of which country?
  - A. Colombia
  - B. Panama
  - C. Ecuador
  - D. Venezuela
7. In October 2005, Secretary of State Condoleezza Rice visited this city near the Hindu Kush, where she met with President Hamid Karzai?
  - A. Baghdad
  - B. Kandahar
  - C. New Delhi
  - D. Kabul
8. Known to first-century Romans as Aquae Sulis, which city in southwestern England is famous for its hot springs?
  - A. Southampton
  - B. Wales
  - C. Bath
  - D. Bristol
9. For 250 years, Spanish ships called galleons carried on a flourishing trade between Acapulco, in New Spain, and this port on an island in East Asia.
  - A. Montevideo
  - B. San Fernando
  - C. Puerto Princesa
  - D. Manila
10. Final Question: The ancient city of Leptis Magna contains some of the world's best-preserved Roman ruins, and is situated in which North African country?
  - A. Algeria
  - B. Morocco
  - C. Libya
  - D. Tunisia

Global Quiz adapted from IEW, sponsored by the Bureau of Educational & Cultural Affairs, US Dept. of State & US Dept. of Education. <http://iew.state.gov>

SCORING

9-10 correct: This Secretary of State may have a job for you.

7-8 correct: You're a worldly whiz.

5-6 correct: About average. With an atlas, a globe, and the web, the world is at your fingertips.

3-4 correct: Not bad. Even from your computer, it's easy to learn about the world.

1-2 correct: There's a big world out there. It's never too late to get to know it.

THANK YOU FOR PLAYING!