- Ongoing Business
  - A. Joe O'Connor - Has an emergency management meeting on Monday, will be working on policies for Coronavirus. Three unexcused absences results in termination, will be following up to make sure students are being told when they are terminated. Has been working on a campus wide notice about the Coronavirus through email. Health services can hand out face masks (no masks available through purchase) masks and gloves will not be used as a preventative measure. Coronavirus quarantine on campus- would notify the authorities and bring them to the hospital, will further details on Monday. Will be fostering communication between housing, public safety, hall council, and housing and safety committee. Would like to increase exposure at freshman seminars. There are concerns about having fear from students regarding officers.
