B. Trustee Update -Peter Kennedy

- A. Civic engagement went very well, and would like to increase attendance. Limited young participation, many elders. We need to increase younger participation to foster understanding. Joe O'Connor will be at the General meeting on the 28th. Meeting with President Drumm to discuss the combining of business and liberal arts. Asks for attendance if possible. The Board of Trustees meets the 27th at 5pm in the Decker Libis Room. No talk about student problems. Facilities and Finance meeting on the 25th.

C. Vice President of Academic Affairs- Ben Privitera

At CAI Pres Drumm was there, many concerns about restructuring. Drumm will be attending the next one as well. Bookstore- Textbook Committee, Cheryl Smith is in charge of FSA at the moment. Chancellor's Award for faculty, Luke will do it. Someone new will be taking over CAI.

D. Vice President of Student Affairs Amanda Van Horn - Not Present

E. Vice President of Administrative affairs- Ben Kircher - Bussing survey will be sent out soon, working with Hayley. Found an easier way to find that statistics through google drive. Will be tabling in three or four locations over the course of the week. Food pantry is moving along, and Hayley is now taking care of the food pantry. Working with CHOW and Les to increase the abundance of food, would like to increase food allotment to four times a month. Problems with meal vouchers. Sustainability committee is still finding time to meet. Tabling on Tuesday 11-12 and Friday 12-1 (Peter, Ahjaynay to table on tuesday, Hayley to table on Friday).

F. Secretary Update - Abigayle Bennett

Working on graduation gear, necklace minimum order is 50. Safety Committee establishment, would like to have Public Safety host self defense class at least once a month. Would SA like to work with Art, Tutoring, and Ecology club to create a space under the library.
